

Communists Are Humiliated By War Prisoners

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communists in Korea are taking a beating in the psychological war.

Humiliated by their own countrymen who refused to return home after being captured, the Communists by a nakedly cruel proposal gave a good insight into why so many Red prisoners rejected repatriation.

This was in their demand that the prisoners be forced—even though it might require shooting hundreds of them as a terror tactic—to listen to Communists explain why they should return.

Torture and Murder
And this week the United States added to this picture of Communist savagery with two reports on the mental and physical torture and murder used by the Communists on the United Nations soldiers they captured.

Under the Korean Armistice agreement covering prisoners who refused to go home, 5,000 Indian troops were brought into Korea to guard these prisoners on both sides. This was to be the program.

The Communists would be permitted to talk face-to-face with the 16,500 Chinese and 8,000 North Koreans who had been captured by the U.N. and refused repatriation. The U.N. would be allowed to do the same with the 335 South Koreans, 23 Americans and one Briton who had been captured by the Communists and chose to remain with them.

The Communists talked to 921 Chinese and persuaded only 20, or 2 per cent, to return. Many of the others roundly cursed the Red "explainers." The North Koreans rioted when the Indian troops sought to bring them before the "explainers."

The Communists demanded that the North Koreans be brought before them. The Indian guards, who might have had to kill hundreds before terrifying the survivors into submitting, refused.

The U.N. hadn't tried to talk to a single U.N. prisoner captured by the Communists. The U.N. may have decided to hold back while the world concentrated its attention on the Communists' humiliation.

The delay served another purpose: It provided time for the relatives of these U.N. prisoners to write them, urging their renunciation of Communism. Such letters might have more weight than any word from U.N. "explainers." One of the 23 Americans has changed his mind.

New York Milk Tieup Near End

NEW YORK (AP)—An end to the 4-day-old milk strike in the New York metropolitan area seemed imminent today when a mediator announced the "most troublesome issues" in the wage-hour dispute had been resolved.

The nature of the issues resolved was not disclosed.

The strike has cut off fresh milk from about 12 million persons in the New York City area and northern New Jersey. Hospitals and schools have been supplied throughout the walkout.

Thirteen thousand AFL teamsters struck 200 milk plants last Sunday over a union demand for a $15 weekly wage raise and a 35-hour work week. The companies have offered boosts up to $2.10 a week.

Retail stores and restaurants in the affected areas were sold out the day after the strike started. Milk depots, despite rationing, ran out of supplies by Tuesday.

Soviets Still Have Spy Rings In U.S., Former Agent Says

NEW YORK (AP)—A former Russian intelligence officer says the Russians had 20 to 25 spy rings in this country before U. S. entry into World War II, and perhaps more during the war.

The onetime Red agent, Ismail Akhmedov, who now uses the name Ismail Ege, testified Wednesday at an open, televised hearing of the Senate internal security subcommittee headed by Sen.

King And Queen Of Greece Feted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The king and queen of Greece faced a busy schedule today after being toasted by President Eisenhower at a White House dinner Wednesday night as leaders of a nation which "ranks high as a champion on the side of human dignity and freedom."

The royal visitors, King Paul and Queen Frederika, are in this country for a 37-day stay during which they will travel from coast to coast and back.

They arrived Wednesday and spent their first night at the White House.

The day's schedule calls for a motor trip to Mount Vernon and the laying of a wreath at the tomb of George Washington and to Arlington National Cemetery for a similar ceremony at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Press, radio, television and news photographers arranged a luncheon for the royal couple. After that they planned to go to the Army-Navy Country Club to receive the heads of diplomatic missions and about 1,700 people invited to a reception.

The day will end with another formal dinner, this one given by Secretary of State and Mrs. Dulles.

Food Prices In 1954 Expected To Remain Near Present Level

WASHINGTON (AP)—Retail food prices in 1954 will average close to this year's level, the Agriculture Department predicted today.

And the department said, farmers probably will receive about the same share of the consumer's food dollar—a share estimated at 45 cents for 1953.

Food supplies about as large as in 1953 are in prospect for 1954, the department said.

"With no marked change in prospect for consumer income, the demand for food is likely to continue strong," the department said.

The estimate that the farmer got 45 cents of the consumer's food dollars in 1953—2 cents less than in 1952—is the lowest since 1941. But it is higher than in most pre-World War II years.

Gambler Costello Released At Milan

DETROIT (AP)—Gambler Frank Costello was released today from the federal correctional institution at Milan after serving about a year of his 18 months sentence for contempt of the U. S. Senate.

The prison doors were opened for Costello at 8:06 a. m.

Costello left in a big car with a second man and a woman, clad in black furs believed to be his wife.

William E. Jenner (R-Ind.) He said he quit the Red army after seeing "the true face of communism" and the "methods of the Soviet government."

He told the subcommittee information obtained by Red agents in this country was given to Amtorg, Russian trading agency disbanded some years ago, then relayed to Moscow through Soviet embassies here and abroad.

Asked if Red agents were using the United Nations now for the same purpose, he replied:

"I'm sure of it."

In his testimony, Ege identified a man named Arthur Alexandrovich Adams as a former Soviet agent who escaped behind the Iron Curtain in 1944.

Bishop Swings Sledge On Shrine

MURPHY, N. C. (AP)—Bishop Homer Tomlinson of the Church of God was arrested Wednesday while swinging an eight-pound sledgehammer at five-foot concrete letters spelling out the Ten Commandments on a mountain near here.

The bishop, 61, jailed for an hour and then released pending trial, left town immediately "to fast for seven days." He didn't say where he was going.

The shrine—on Burger Mountain and visible for miles—belongs to another faction of the church, the Church of God Prophecy. It is headed by the bishop's brother, the Rev. Milton Tomlinson of Cleveland, Tenn. Their father, A. J. Tomlinson, said he saw a vision on the mountain which led to the start of the Church of God in 1903.

Homer Tomlinson, who lives in Queens Village, N. Y., arrived in Cleveland, Tenn., Tuesday. There he "relieved" Milton as overseer of the Church of God Prophecy.

He then drove to the shrine, which he said had been made into "idolatry."

While a crowd of about 100 watched, the bishop struck one of the concrete blocks two blows with a sledgehammer. Sheriff M. G. Crawford arrested him for destroying church property.

One Man Killed In Lake Michigan Oil Tanker Blast

CHICAGO (AP)—A lake tanker loaded with 500,000 gallons of gasoline exploded in Lake Michigan today, killing one crewman and injuring two others. Eight others aboard the tanker escaped.

The boat, the Blue Comet, burst into flame at 6:45 a. m., in Calumet Harbor, off 92nd street, and fire boats and coast guard rescue craft sped to the scene.

Coast Guardsmen removed the dead man, the injured, other members of the crew and the skipper, Capt. Charles Quarry.

The dead crew member was identified by the Coast Guard as Edward Surville, about 35, of Kingston, Pa.

The fire was reported extinguished about two hours after the tanker erupted. Firemen reported it was confined to the boat's No. 1 hold. No estimate of the amount of gasoline destroyed was available.

The 253-foot tanker, owned by the James McWilliams Blue Line, Inc., and registered out of New Jersey, had been laying to in the harbor because of weather conditions.

The Coast Guard said the cause of the blast had not been determined.

Island Volcano Off Indonesia Starts Spewing Ash And Fire

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Kratatau, the island volcano which set off tidal waves killing 36,000 persons when it blew its top 70 years ago, is spewing ash and fire in a new series of eruptions.

The Indonesian government's volcanological service in Bandung has reported over 100 explosions in the past four days.

No damage or casualties have been recorded, but the volcanological service has warned authorities in coastal areas of possible danger from tidal waves. Shipping has been rerouted.

Army Gives Details Of Red Horrors And Atrocities In Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army has laid before the world a documented indictment of Communist atrocities in Korea listing 6,113 Americans as probable victims.

It tells how captured GIs were dragged on death marches, roasted alive, lined up and shot. The document, compiled by the Army's war crimes division and released last night, includes charts and graphs and photographs of bound, charred bodies.

A total of 29,815 "probable" atrocities of all nationalities were listed.

Eyes Gouged Out
The statistics weren't new. They closely correspond to an official estimate of 6,000 released after Col. James M. Hanley of a war crimes investigation unit first brought mass Red atrocities to public notice in November 1951.

But in the Army's new report, what survivors had to say was grim reading. For instance:

"One of the boys had no head; it seemed to have been mashed or beaten and was laying all over the road. . . . The other GI had his eyes gouged out, and nothing remained where his eyes were except holes."

The report indicated most of the atrocities occurred in the first year of the war when the North Koreans invaded South Korea. There was a smaller upsurge when the Chinese entered the war and hurled the Allies back from the region of the Yalu River.

"Confessions" Forced
The Chinese were charged with 27.3 per cent, the North Koreans with almost all the rest.

What was not spelled out in the Army's report was the reason for issuing the detailed account at this time. However, its issuance seemed related to a report to the United Nations three days ago by Dr. Charles Mayo, a U. N. delegate and famous American surgeon.

Dr. Mayo's report gave a scientific account of how the Reds compelled "confessions" from American war prisoners about germ warfare—a propaganda point often employed by the Communists.

A statement by Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens which accompanied the text said releasing details of such "cold-blooded . . . torture and murder . . . is one of the best answers that can be

Rains Ease Fire Hazard In State

LANSING (AP)—The Conservation Department today resumed issuing fire permits in the Lower Peninsula after general rains had well dampened the forests.

Permits were cancelled more than a week ago when hot dry conditions produced one of the worst forest fire hazard periods in history.

M. M. Bergman, chief of the Department's fire fighters, credited public cooperation with holding down the losses during the last week of the high hazard period to 101 fires over 730 acres.

The rains, which began Saturday, have permitted extra crews, moved into the Lower Peninsula, to return to their Upper Peninsula Stations, Bergman reported.

Newsman Hunting Sgt. Brown Find Over 70 In Korea

SEOUL (AP)—"Find Sgt. John Brown!"
Newsreel and still photographers in Korea got that order Wednesday from their offices in New York.

Brown is the soldier-husband of television singer Dorothy McGuire. Singer Julius La Rosa, who was fired last week from Arthur Godfrey's TV program, announced he intends to marry Miss McGuire as soon as she can get a divorce.

Miss McGuire's parents said her husband is in Korea, but refused to say where, or in which outfit.

"Find him and take his picture," the messages ordered, urgently.

So the newsmen asked the 8th Army to check its director of personnel. A public information officer found 70—that's right, 70—Sgt. John Browns stationed at 8th Army headquarters, or in divisions on the front, on ammunition dumps on engineer units.

"And you might call the 5th Air Force, the 1st Marine Division, the 1st Marine Air Wing and the Korean Communications Zone," the 8th Army PIO suggested.

"They undoubtedly have some more."

Allies Promise Fresh Angle In Korean Problem

PANMUNJOM (AP)—U. S. Envoy Arthur Dean today proposed a fresh approach to the problem of arranging a Korean peace conference, but the Communists retorted with their angriest blast in four days of preliminary negotiations.

He told the Reds to "stop the nonsense" of demanding seats for neutrals at a peace conference and get on with the business of fixing a time and place for the political conference.

Insult Charged
When the job is completed, he said, he'll be willing to talk about who will attend.

The Reds did not reply directly. When Dean finished North Korean Foreign Ministry representative Ki Sok Bok leveled a stinging attack at him.

Wednesday, the American had called Communist China and North Korea "agents" of Russia and said the Soviets poured weapons into Red Korea during the war.

The Communist delegate called this "an intolerable insult" and said this fully indicates that the United States government has no sincerity to expedite the political conference.

The Red delegate lodged a "strong protest" and insisted that he "retract this rude mistatement."

Picture May Change
Dean told correspondents that what he said "is a fact. How can I retract it?"

The promise of a surprising announcement Friday touched off reports here today that balking anti-Communist Korean prisoners have agreed to attend interviews with Red explainers.

Communist demands that the Koreans be forced to attend—at gunpoint if necessary—have all but wrecked the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimaya, Indian chairman of the deadlocked commission, made the cryptic statement that he would have a "surprising" announcement Friday. Neither Thimaya nor other Indian officers would amplify his remarks.

But a reliable source said the announcement would concern the reluctant 7,800 North Korean prisoners.

Break Foreseen In Chile Copper

WASHINGTON (AP)—An early break in prolonged copper negotiations between the United States and Chile was foreshadowed yesterday in reports that Chile plans to modify her copper policy completely.

The two countries have been negotiating here for the past six weeks over a Chilean request that the United States buy 100,000 tons of surplus Chilean copper at world market prices for the American stockpile.

Chile had been unable to market the copper at a fixed price of 36 cents a pound at a time when the world price slipped to 30 cents and below.

The United States has been insisting that Chile revise her exchange and tax systems on copper and on American-owned companies.

Santiago reports indicate that the Ibanez government with a newly appointed finance minister may now be ready to undertake these reforms.

Guilt Is Denied On Drug Charge By Miss Smythe

Registered nurse Fannie Dale Smythe of Escanaba, through her attorney, pleaded not guilty this morning in Circuit Court to a charge that she fraudulently obtained drugs from St. Francis Hospital.

Judge Edward Fenlon scheduled her trial for Monday, Nov. 9, at 9 a. m.

Jeannine Nelson of Escanaba, former nurse's aid at St. Francis Hospital, who pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of obtaining morphine tablets by fraud, was placed on three-years probation Wednesday afternoon by Judge Fenlon.

Miss Nelson, who shared an apartment with Miss Smythe at 1421 8th Ave. S., promised Judge Fenlon she would enter the U. S. Public Health Service's Hospital for narcotics addicts in Lexington, Ky.

Must Appear Personally

Miss Smythe was not in court today. Judge Fenlon tentatively accepted her not guilty plea, but ruled she must come in person before the court to present her plea before he definitely will accept it.

Judge Fenlon noted that Miss Smythe may change her plea when she formally appears before him, should she want to do so.

Miss Smythe's lawyer, Alger Strom, Tuesday had asked a new examination in justice court for the registered nurse, alleging the state had made a new charge against Miss Smythe.

County Prosecutor Nicholas Chapekis this morning withdrew the charge in question from the present indictment. The withdrawn charge alleged that Miss Smythe unlawfully administered a narcotic drug to Miss Nelson.

Objects To Wording

Judge Fenlon asked Strom if he still wished to return the case to justice court.

"I haven't been given any chance to think this over," Strom replied. "This is a surprise to me."

Strom then objected to the word "theft" in the state's charge that Miss Smythe obtained, or attempted to obtain, narcotic drugs "by fraud and theft, deceit, misrepresentation or subterfuge." Strom also said he was dissatisfied with the state's response to his request for a more definite and more informative statement of the charges against Miss Smythe. Chapekis agreed to delete the word "theft."

"Are we ready now for arraignment?" asked the judge.

LEGION LEADER DEAD—Guy M. Cox, 58, Iron River insurance agent and realtor, died of a heart attack Wednesday shortly after arriving in a doctor's office for a medical checkup. He was past Michigan department commander and national executive committee member of the American Legion, and former president of the Upper Peninsula Association of Insurance Agents.

Briefly Told

Look For Dog—Escanaba city police officers are looking for a large brown shepherd dog in order to test it for rabies. The dog bit a boy this week, in the 500 block on S. 19th St., and it is important that the animal be tested for rabies.

Strom then entered Miss Smythe's plea of not guilty.

Probationary Conditions

A special condition of Miss Nelson's probation was that she shall not, during her probation term, be employed anywhere where drugs are sold, administered or dispensed, Wallace R. Kemp, probation officer, said.

The regular probation conditions required by statute were also imposed upon her; that she not violate any Michigan or U. S. criminal law, or any ordinance of any Michigan municipality, that she not leave the state without the Court's consent, and that she report to the probation officer at stated intervals.

Miss Smythe was arrested Oct. 10, and Miss Nelson Oct. 14. A Michigan State Police detective from Detroit aided Escanaba city police in the investigation which preceded the arrests.

Six Get Citizenship In Naturalization Court

Six Delta County residents became naturalized United States citizens this morning in a special session of Delta County Circuit Court.

Judge Edward Fenlon of Petoskey presided, saying "This is one of the pleasant duties that a judge has to perform."

The new citizens are Regina Anderson of 633 N. 19th St., from Austria; Katherina Kniskern of Rapid River, from Germany; Andrew Houston Jr., 1108 2nd Ave. S., from Scotland; Joseph Wos of Escanaba Rte. 1, from Poland; Matt Katich of Gladstone, from Austria; and William Krieger of Gladstone Rte. 1, from Canada.

Mayor Robert Le Mire presented each new citizen with a booklet on behalf of the American Legion, and Pat Gasman, president of the Kiwanis Club, shook hands with each one.

In the ceremony, for which Judge Fenlon put on his black robe of office, Francis Reed, officer in charge of the Sault Ste. Marie office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, asked each petitioner such questions as: What is the American form of government? What is the Constitution? Who makes our federal laws? Who are the senators from Michigan? Who is the governor of Michigan?

Each candidate had been investigated before this morning's session, and had been interviewed on the United States form of government, Reed said.

Present were 11 high school students who watched the ceremony from the jury box.

Probate Judge William D. Miller of Rapid River addressed the new citizens briefly. Judge Fenlon introduced State Rep. Einar Erlandsen, who was present.

Former Menominee Man Heads State Cancer Fund Drive

W. F. Doyle, of East Lansing, former resident of Menominee, will head the American Cancer Society's 1954 drive for funds in Michigan.

Doyle will head the campaign for the second successive year in the crusade against cancer as a contribution of the chain store group. It is the first time any campaign director has been so honored.

Doyle will represent Michigan at a meeting of national leaders to be held in Chicago in November, at which plans will be formulated for the 1954 drive.

Rajala was also ordered not to leave Michigan during the probation period, and to refrain from using intoxicants for the two years.

Judge Fenlon advised him to have a psychiatric examination and Rajala promised to do so.

The judge took note of William La Crosse's fine employment record over the years. Conditions of La Crosse's probation included the payment of $150.00 in oversight fees and costs to the Court; and appearance at every term of Circuit Court during the probation period. La Crosse is not to drink during the probation period.

La Crosse will be allowed to leave Michigan because his work frequently takes him to other states.

Judge Fenlon suggested that La Crosse also avail himself of the help that a psychiatric examination might afford.

Mrs. Magnuson Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Arthur Magnuson, 60, of 221 S. 16th St. died at 12:30 p. m. today at St. Francis Hospital. She had been in poor health, but her death which followed a stroke she suffered at 5 p. m. yesterday, was unexpected.

She was born in Ishpeming Sept. 22, 1893. The family lived in Escanaba some time ago and then moved to Chicago, returning here about 10 years ago.

She was a member of Central Methodist Church of which her brother, the Rev. Karl J. Hammar is pastor, and of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Surviving are her husband, three children, Mrs. Leslie Larson of Stephenson, Roy of Chicago and Mrs. Francis Bolm, Escanaba, 8 grandchildren, and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Anna Engstrom of Marquette, Mrs. David Engstrom, Ishpeming, Mrs. Martin Johnson, Chicago, Mrs. David Erickson, Escanaba, Arthur of Ishpeming, Oscar, Ishpeming, Axel of Hibbing, Minn., and Mr. Hammar.

The body was taken to the Anderson Funeral Home where friends may call beginning tomorrow afternoon. The body will be removed to Central Methodist Church at noon Saturday and services will be held there at 2 p. m. Burial will be in Gardens of Rest Cemetery.

Wells Township PTA Council Holds Meeting

The Wells Township Parent-Teachers Association Council met at the Wells School last night. Five of the township's six schools were represented with 21 people present.

There was a discussion regarding the legality of penny or nickel bingo at PTA school affairs. Since Council action is not binding on local units, an opinion vote was taken of delegates present. The vote indicated that since such games of chance are considered illegal, PTA policy demands that they be eliminated wherever the law is violated either in letter or spirit.

The Council felt that in conformity with PTA by-laws, PTAs should not act as units, "seek to direct the administrative activities of the schools or to control their policies." PTAs are fundamentally an educational organization, it was emphasized.

Superintendent Klug reminded the group of a recently passed law which holds parents responsible for up to $300.00 damage

Offer Tickets For Two Plays

The Escanaba Lions Club drama committee, headed by Norman Dahlke, announced that tickets good for the final two plays of the New York Civic Drama Guild series will be placed on sale this week at an attractive package price for the two shows.

The two plays are "Be Your Age" to be presented on Nov. 12 and "Mr. Roberts" on Dec. 10. Both plays are well known Broadway productions. "Mr. Roberts" was the outstanding play of the postwar period and established outstanding records for long runs both in New York and in Chicago.

The first play in the series, done to a public building.

The next Council meeting will be held at Soo Hill Jan. 27.

"Lo and Behold," was presented earlier this month to an enthusiastic crowd.

Nearly 400 series tickets were sold before the first play and these tickets will, of course, be good for the next two plays in the series. However, the drama committee reported that numerous requests have been received for tickets for the remaining two plays from people who were unable to attend the opening play.

Perch Fishing Improves Here

Good catches of perch on Little and Big Bays de Noc are being made these days as fishermen enjoy a late-season sport missed by most of the tourists.

Fishermen report that perch of jumbo size are biting well and that their luck is better than at any time during the spring or summer. Worms and minnows are both being used as bait.

Perch are being taken by the hook and line fishermen at Escanaba, Gladstone, in Little Bay off Squaw Point, and at Nahma and Fayette. Best catches are being made in deeper water from boats.

There is no closed season on perch and they may be taken the year around. There is no size limit but the number taken is limited to 50 in one day on the bays or Great Lakes, and 25 in inland lakes.

Northern pike also are reported biting well in harbor locations along the shores of the bays in Delta County. While not rated with perch as a table delicacy, northern pike grow large and offer fishermen a battle comparable to the fighting strength of the muskellunge.

Fishing generally improves with the arrival of colder weather, but there are few except the more avid fishermen who continue the sport into late October.

Menominee Lions Present TV Set To Pinecrest San

POWERS — The Menominee Lions Club last night presented a television set to Pinecrest Sanatorium at the annual Halloween party. It was the 29th consecutive year that a Menominee group has presented the Halloween party at the sanatorium.

The presentation of the TV set was made by Wally Hansen and was accepted by Dr. John Towey on behalf of the patients. Hansen is a brother of the late John Hansen, engineer at Pinecrest for many years.

The program included music by Arnold Smith's orchestra, a trumpet solo by Robert Gustavson, songs and dancing by Diane Kon-yuk, accompanied on the accordion by her sister, Joanne; tap dancing and baton twirling by Donna Probuska, bone rattling by John Daly and a skit by Cliff De-Gayner and George Everard. George Everard also was master of ceremonies.

Many individual gifts were presented to the patients by the Menominee Lions Club.

Sunday Final Day Of Hunting Season

Bird hunters will get in a full weekend of shooting as the 1953 season draws to a close on Nov. 1.

Conservation officials reminded hunters today that the season extends through Sunday, Nov. 1.

Reports on the Upper Peninsula hunting situation indicate there are fewer hunters, better hunting conditions and in general fewer birds this year.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Social Security Tax Rate Rises To 2 Percent Jan. 1

The social security tax rate for persons whose work counts toward old-age and survivors insurance is scheduled to increase on the first of January, Carl L. Johnson, manager of the Escanaba social security office, reminded employers, employees, and self-employed people today.

This scheduled increase in tax contribution is in accordance with the 1950 amendments to the social security law, and was enacted by Congress in anticipation of future obligations of the program.

Employees in jobs covered by the law will have 2 percent instead of the present 1½ percent deducted from their pay beginning with the first of January up to earnings of $3600 a year; their employers will contribute an equal amount. The new rates will apply to all taxable wages paid after December 31, 1953, regardless of when earned.

The social security tax for the self-employed is scheduled to increase from the present 2¼ percent to 3 percent, for the period commencing January 1, 1954. Since the self-employed whose work is covered by the law pay their tax just once yearly at the time of filing their Federal income tax return, they will pay the present 2¼ percent social security tax on their 1953 income that counts toward social security. This will be due not later than March 15, 1954. Their first payments at the increased rate of 3 percent will be due March 15, 1955, for the calendar year 1954.

Healthful Cod Liver Oil Program Financed By Community Chest

Thanks to the Delta County Community Chest, 1,300 bottles of cod liver oil or "bottled sunshine" are provided for more than 500 needy families throughout the county.

The Cod Liver Oil Fund, administered by the Delta County Health Department through the services of the Lay Health Committee of Delta County, is one of six agencies financed by the Community Chest.

Funds to be raised in the campaign starting next Tuesday will be used to finance this work and the work of five other agencies throughout 1954. Other agencies are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Michigan Children's Aid and the Campfire Girls. The goal is $20,000, of which $12,500 must be raised in Escanaba, $4,500 in Gladstone and $3,000 in the townships.

"This is the sixteenth year we have been distributing healthful cod liver oil in Delta County," Mrs. Christian L. Riegel, chairman of the Lay Health Committee, said yesterday. "We started out with 97 bottles the first year and now we are ordering, bottling and distributing 1,300 bottles to needy families each year."

Members of the Lay Health Committee, under the supervision of Dr. W. C. Harrison and Miss Phoebe Anderson, R. N., of the county health department, do the work of sterilizing the bottles and bottling the oil from a bulk container.

Among those who serve regularly at the Webster Annex are Mrs. Leonard Winling, Jr., of Pine Ridge; Mrs. Lucille Weissert, Escanaba, and Mrs. Riegel, and they are assisted by Mrs. Leonard Winling, Jr., of Escanaba; Mrs. Mary Pearson and Mrs. Rose Casey, both of Wells; Mrs. Helen Sedquist, of Pine Ridge; Mrs. Robert Rouse, of Gladstone, and Mrs. Paul Rademacher, of Escanaba.

"Many schools in Delta County rural areas administer the oil as part of the daily school program," Mrs. Riegel explained. "Infants and pre-school children's needs are met either by the nurse in the area or directly at the office of the county health department."

"Each family receiving oil has a card on file at the health department in Escanaba, and a record is kept on the card as to number of children in each family served. Only the highest grade imported Norwegian oil is used, and it is our custom to purchase it in 30-gallon drums from the lowest bidder."

"In this area of comparatively little sunshine, we have found that the use of cod liver oil has contributed much to the health of children of the county. I can think of no better reason to support the Community Chest than to help the children of our county."

More than 12,000 new telephone directories arrived here today, according to G. A. Marcouiller, Michigan Bell manager.

The books are being mailed from the directory printer at Crawfordsville, Ind., to customers in Escanaba, Gladstone, Bark River, Cornell, Hermansville, Perkins, Powers, Rapid River, Rock and Spalding.

In addition, 1,630 special Hermansville alphabetical directories are being delivered for the use of customers at Norway, said Marcouiller.

"Because there have been many number changes," the manager said, "the new directories are very important. Expired books should be discarded as soon as new ones are received to avoid calling

Television Reception In Local Area Will Improve Shortly

WITHIN a few days if all goes well television reception in Escanaba and many other parts of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will improve considerably. The Green Bay station WBAY-TV will begin operating on 100,000 watts from a 750 foot tower, a development that will bring Escanaba near the primary area of the station's signal strength.

We may still be a fringe area but most television engineers agree that TV reception in Escanaba should be remarkably improved, nevertheless, reception in Escanaba is spotty now but enough video strength is received here from Milwaukee and Green Bay—the latter operating on

We're Catching Up

THE United States is on the threshold of its next advance in commercial aviation.

In about a month, American Airlines will inaugurate nonstop service from New York to Los Angeles with a new transport plane, the DC-7, which is expected to span the continent regularly in some seven and a half hours. On a recent trial run, the DC-7, with a full crew and a passenger list, actually made it in less than seven.

Within a few years the international lines expect to be flying the Atlantic in six or seven hours.

Pan American has ordered some advanced models of the famed British Comets. An American plane maker is pushing ahead with a jet transport which it is believed may surpass the Comet's performance. This is the craft which may fly New York to London in six hours.

We're catching up with the fantasies in the Sunday supplements.

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

Question: My boy friend is an aviation cadet. He tells me his class are called "kiwis" because they haven't been allowed to fly solo yet. Can you tell me the origin of this strange nickname?

B. L., San Bernardino, Calif.

Answer: Yes, indeed, The kiwi (pronounced KEE-wee) is a nearly extinct New Zealand bird whose most remarkable characteristic is a complete inability to fly. A very odd-looking creature with large four-clawed feet and a disproportionately long beak, it lives—when in captivity—on a diet of earthworms and drinks fluids only when it is sick. It is almost unknown outside New Zealand, where it is considered the national bird.

Whether the use of the nickname "kiwi" to designate flightless aviation cadets originated with the Australian and New Zealand armed forces is not certain, but the phrase has been in general use with our forces at least since World War II.

Question: What is the origin of the word "candid" in "candid camera"?

M. S., Rye, N. Y.

Answer: Dr. Erich Salomon, using one of the first Leica 35-millimeter cameras, in 1928 took a series of unposed pictures of world-famous statesmen at a League of Nations meeting in Geneva. When published in the LONDON GRAPHIC, they created a sensation because they were so unlike the customarily stiff and formal group photographs taken at such assemblies. The word "candid" was used to describe Salomon's photos by the GRAPHIC and the word soon came into general use to describe the miniature cameras and photographs taken while the subject was unaware and "off guard."

How large is your vocabulary? How many words can you use with confidence? For the answers to these questions just send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to William Morris in care of this paper for a copy of his new fifteen-minute vocabulary test. By a unique self-scoring system, it will show you how many words you know and how to increase your word-power almost overnight.

The Doctor Says...

Tummy Sleeping Is Least Likely Cause of Cross-Eyes

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Mothers and fathers are practically never without questions, some of which are easy to answer and some of which are not. A mother asks my opinion about babies sleeping on their stomachs. She is under the impression this causes the babies to become cross-eyed. She has raised eight children, and the first six slept on their backs and their eyes were perfect, but the other two slept on their stomachs and have eyes which are crooked.

I cannot imagine any reason why a baby which slept on the abdomen would be any more likely to develop crossed eyes than any other infant. Actually, pediatricians advise mothers to turn their small babies from time to time for the comfort of the infant and the effect on the skull.

Another mother says her six-year-old son has myopia, or nearsightedness. People have given her to understand that children, near-sighted at this early age, eventually go blind. I am glad to reassure her about this since while the child may have to wear glasses in order to attain good vision, it seems most unlikely that blindness could possibly develop. Writing about her 16-month-old baby, another parent says that the infant has eaten well until she started to teethe, and since her gums have been swollen, and she will hardly eat at all.

The severe reaction to teething, such as the one described, does not last very long as a rule, and the child should start eating well when the discomfort is over.

ADOPTED CHILD PROBLEM

A most difficult problem is presented by Mr. and Mrs. B. who say that they have a four-year-old adopted child who will not respond in any way to their affection.

The clue to the difficulty is probably given in another paragraph in which Mr. and Mrs. B. say that they also have a three-year-old daughter who is not adopted, but who gives and asks for their love freely. There is almost certainly some feeling of insecurity on the part of the adopted child, which probably the parents are not aware of. Perhaps the help of their physician or pediatrician would be sufficient to pinpoint the difficulty.

Television, like radio, has its proper place in the economic life of America. Neither television nor radio, however, can supplant the newspaper as the primary source of news dissemination. They can only supplement newspapers as a source of news. Their primary purpose is to entertain and they do this mission exceptionally well.

OCTOBER WONDERFUL IN U. P.

(Menominee Herald-Leader)

When spring is awakening, our countryside is attractive with the promise of verdure. In lush summer and in snowy mid-winter it is attractive. But at no time of year is it so dramatically, spectacularly colorful as it is right now. This is the time to tour Menominee County and the Upper Peninsula to see them in their brightest colors. Highway US-41 up the mid-county offers pleasant vistas of groves and farm-lands and so does US-2 across the County. The Menominee River drive and County Road 577 show sky and autumn foliage reflected in this broadest of the rivers of Hiawathaland and M-35 along the shore of Green Bay contrasts the forested shore with sandy beaches, the bay and the blue-with-distance headlands of the Door County Peninsula of Wisconsin. County Road 551 along the Cedar River is solidly forested, M-69 across the top of the County runs picturesquely west to the foothills of the Menominee Range. And all the little roads between offer roadside beauty in this pleasant time of autumn.

For the traveler who will go farther there are the delights of the Copper Country and its skyline Brockway Mountain Drive, the hardwoods of the Menominee Iron Range, the Porcupine Mountains, the Tahquamenon River and other scenic delights.

A favorite theme played on the promotional fiddles of the Upper Peninsula is the need for more facilities here for visitors. There is another need which gets less accent, but which is a necessity if the peninsula is to progress as it should as a recreational area. It is that the people of the peninsula themselves enjoy its beauties and outdoor recreational opportunities fully. If they do, others will come to share their joys with them. Now is the time to enjoy one of the greatest thrills of the year in the U. P., the annual color tour.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Kingpin gambler Frankie Costello, who gets out of Milan, Mich., federal penitentiary today, has been a model prisoner. He received a few special favors, but only a few.

When he entered prison two days after Christmas last year, Costello arrived late at night in a bureau of prison's bus, a departure from normal practice, aimed to avoid waiting photographers and newsmen.

During his two weeks' quarantine in the admission unit, Costello was bombarded with offers of candy, cigarettes, magazines from other prisoners. To them he was a hero. He turned all offers down, made it plain he wanted to be an ordinary prisoner.

After quarantine Costello was assigned to the white cell-house instead of the usual dormitory. There is a waiting list for the white cell-house and prisoners get on the list because of merit. Frankie, however, didn't have to wait. He found on arrival that three inmates had completely scrubbed down the cell for him, at which point he decided to follow the line of least resistance and let others work for him if they wanted to.

Costello's prison job was that of sorting other inmates' dirty socks—which got a laugh from everybody.

Costello was paid considerable deference by the guards, but was never placed on meritorious good time—a status whereby a prisoner can reduce his sentence for exceptionally good work. He was allowed the privilege of having visits from his attorneys, which, aside from admission to the white cell-house instead of the dormitory, was about the only privilege he got.

Once during his incarceration, Costello was taken to New York City under guard to face an income-tax charge.

Upon release from Milan today, Costello faces possible deportation.

On July 21, 1947, this writer reported that Costello had falsified his naturalization papers when he stated that he had never been previously convicted—having been convicted of carrying a concealed weapon. Subsequent investigation caused Attorney General James McGranery to place Costello on the list for deportation.

It is not known as yet what action Attorney General Brownell will take on this aspect of the Costello case.

BEEF FOR SCHOOLS

As a result of falling cattle prices, American school children are now eating more canned meat than ever before in history. For what harassed Secretary of Agriculture Benson is doing is buying up canned beef and turning it over to the school lunch program. He is also buying great quantities of canned meat for the armed services.

While this is helpful, it doesn't satisfy the cattlemen. They point out that this program supports the meat-packers but not necessarily the farmer. The spread between what the farmer gets for cattle on the hoof and what housewife pays for meat is too great.

On the other hand, poor Ezra Benson is betwixt and between. If he buys surplus cattle he has to feed them—and he can't put many head of Hereford out in front of the Washington monument to graze. Or if he buys cattle and slaughters them he has to store the carcasses, and refrigeration costs money.

That's why Benson's advisers are reluctantly but seriously thinking of the old, much-maligned Brannan plan—dressed up in some other name—whereby prices would seek their natural level and the farmer would get a subsidy.

MILITARY BUCK-PASSING

Tennessee's famed ex-Sen. Kenneth McKellar returned to Washington the other day to "protect" TVA from the power lobbies.

During his 42 years on Capitol Hill McKellar participated in more back-stage maneuvers and closed-door sessions than any man alive today.

Despite his age, generally believed to be about 85, McKellar's memory is remarkable, and at lunch the other day, he launched on one of his oral trips through history. "I know," he said, "most military men delegate too much authority. They let somebody else do the job for them."

"Back toward the end of the Hoover administration, I was on the senate appropriations subcommittee that handled Army funds. One day the chief of staff, General MacArthur, came up to testify. He brought two generals, a colonel and a major with him."

"MacArthur was always a good witness," McKellar recalled. "He had most of the answers on his fingertips. But finally Senator McNary of Oregon stumped him with a question about Army research on new gun mounts. General MacArthur and his aides all turned to the major for the answer. But the major didn't know the answer."

"Well, that major gave us a big, friendly smile and said he'd have his staff dig up the answer and get it to the committee."

"A couple of weeks passed and we still didn't have the answer," McKellar continued. "It was time to make out our report to the printer, a lieutenant arrived explained that the major was handling the whole matter. A staff member phoned the major and was told that a lieutenant was working on the answer."

"Well, finally just before we sent our report to the printer, a lieutenant arrived with the answer on the gun mounts. Everybody in the Army, it seems, had pushed the job off on his assistant."

"That little story is interesting today," McKellar added with a grin. "The major's name was Dwight D. Eisenhower."

"Well, I Guess That About Wraps It Up"

Bolivia Seeks U.S. Aid To Avoid Communism, Fascism, Civil War

By DANIEL JAMES

LA PAZ, Bolivia (NEA)—This primitive, mountainous country momentarily could plunge into communism, fascism, or a long and bloody civil war.

The only force that can prevent any of these tragedies, according to informed opinion, is the United States.

Bolivian President Victor Paz Estenssoro told this writer: "If we don't get important help from you soon, the situation will get out of our hand."

What the president means by "important help" is a contract to continue purchasing Bolivian tin at high prices.

Bolivia has more neighbors than any other Latin American nation, being bordered by Peru, Chile, Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil. Each is watching tensely to see what happens next, and worrying about the possible effect upon itself.

Since 1920, Bolivia has experienced 19 big and small revolts. One, in 1946, ended with a president hanging from a lamp-post in the capital of La Paz.

But on April 9, 1952, a new kind of revolution occurred. It brought to power men who had been elected democratically the year before, but had been prevented from taking office by a military junta. These men have since destroyed the foundations of the old Bolivia: the army, the tin monopoly, the feudal ownership of land.

Tin nationalization and agrarian reform were not Communist-inspired. The Paz Estenssoro regime is not Communist nor Communist-influenced. It is nationalist. It is also revolutionary. But, paradoxically, it is the only alternative to communism. Or fascism, or chaos.

BOLIVIA'S NEIGHBORS, shown on map, are watching to see what happens next.

Both the extreme left and right hate Paz Estenssoro and gamble on the same hope—that he will not survive Bolivia's worst crisis.

That crisis can be described simply. Bolivia normally imports $25 million worth of food annually. This year food imports have been cut drastically because she lacks dollars. The dollar shortage is due, in turn, to a loss of $30 million in tin sales. Tin usually accounts for nearly all Bolivia's dollar income. Revenue from tin has fallen because of a drop in the world market price from $12½ to 82 cents a pound, and therefore has nothing to do with nationalization. The "expropriated big three mining families—Patino, Hochschild and Aramayo—are in fact happy they aren't around at the moment to take the financial and political rap for the price fall.

To overcome its unhealthy dependence on tin, and on food imports, Bolivia has launched an agrarian reform intended chiefly to diversify the economy. President Paz Estenssoro confidently told me this would conquer the food crisis within a year and a half. But the results, so far, have not been encouraging.

For four centuries the Indians, who number 2,500,000 out of a total of 3,000,000 people, have been held in virtual serfdom. They were required to work gratis two or three days a week for the landowner, pay him a portion of their own crop output as rent, and generally live like animals. Whenever land was sold the Indians usually went with it like livestock.

Last Aug. 2 this ancient system was destroyed with the first of a series of agrarian decrees. The move turned out to be hasty, and was precipitated fundamentally by Communists. Mainly responsible was the Partido Obrero Revolucionario (Revolutionary Workers Party), a Trotskyite Communist party unique in Latin America. The POR ignited the peasants into burning and looting property around Cochabamba in the south, Bolivia's richest grain and fruit region.

Meanwhile the orthodox Communist Party inspired similar outrages in the north, on the 13,000-foot-high Altiplano, another good agricultural area.

Driven to act sooner than it had contemplated, the government has been desperately trying to create machinery to bring order out of a mad scramble for land. But the Indians, literally land-drunk, are loathe to work. Few new crops are being sown. Famine is predicted within a year.

Already, a crazy inflation is tightening many a belt. Prices are as incredibly high for Bolivians as they are low for Americans. The boliviano, the current unit, is 735 to the dollar.

One dollar can buy a good meal in the best La Paz restaurant. But that represents about a third of the monthly pay of an average Bolivian office worker.

The Red danger is not necessarily direct. All Communist varieties aren't strong enough to stage a successful revolution. They can come to power, however, through other forces, as in Guatemala.

The man through whom communism could rule in Bolivia is Juan Lechin, Minister of Mines and head of the most powerful single group in the country—Federated Union of Mineworkers.

By no means a Communist, Lechin leads a government faction that is sympathetic to communism and periodically espouses such Red notions as a "workers militia." He possesses his own militia in the form of armed miners.

The extremist right operates through the illegal Falange party.

BOLIVIA'S PRESIDENT, Victor Paz Estenssoro, sees big need for "important" U.S. help.

a Spanish-modeled organization of fanatics reportedly with a cache of 8,000 rifles. They are led by exiled generals chiefly in Peru, believed financed by the Big Three mining families, and allegedly supplied with arms from Venezuela.

All but the extremists themselves seem to agree that only the U. S. can prevent the horror of civil war in Bolivia, and its consequent effect upon the rest of Latin America.

We have agreed to buy 10,000 tons of tin until March, 1954. This will give Bolivia around $16,500,000, but represents a net loss because it costs more than the prevailing market price to mine tin. It is felt that the U. S. ought to guarantee tin purchases indefinitely if Bolivia is to obtain a steady supply of dollars. Meanwhile, we will have a steady supply of tin and maintain our only safe major source in case of war.

We have more than doubled Point Four to over $3,000,000. A tour of some Point Four installations convinces this writer that more of them could work wonders. But according to both high-placed Americans and Bolivians, what's needed is large shipments of food and grain, followed by fertilizer and machinery to raise farm production rapidly.

So They Say

There are officials of the National Council of Churches who have shown a marked affinity toward totalitarianism and there are Communists in the World Council of Churches—Dr. Bordeaux, General Secretary of the American Council of Christian Churches.

I didn't commit those murders. I will hang myself in my cell if the police try to pin that rap on me. —John Wable, suspected "phantom killer" of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Even if the danger of atomic and hydrogen attack will not become critical for another two or three years—a conclusion which I cannot myself accept—the time to prepare for such a possible future attack is now, today.—Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R., N. Y.).

There was a crash and I lost control. That's all I know.—Bing Crosby smashes up his new $12,000 sports car.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

THE GHOSTS WALK—Come Saturday evening young ghosts will walk in Escanaba and other communities across the nation, frightening grownups out of their wits and special treats of candy and apples.

This is called "trick or treat" with the youngsters doing the tricks and the adults the treating. It is a time-honored custom that no one—particularly the children—will want to ignore.

Best way to treat a trick is with kindness and plenty of candy and cookies. Children have a way of knowing friend from enemy and a bit of candy will make them happy and save your windows from soap and your temper from being ruffled.

Today's children (let this be a credit to them) are not half so destructive in their Halloween pranks as were their fathers. Perhaps advancement in the science of plumbing and the passing of the once-prevalent outhouse has something to do with this.

AN EARLIER DAY—Older folks may deplore the pranks played on Halloween, 1953, but they should think back to their youth and they will not be quite so harsh in their criticism.

For in an earlier day the fences and gates were torn up and used to decorate the roofs of public buildings; carriages were hoisted (no one remembers how) to the top of the livery stable; and the church steeples wore horse collars and harness.

What would be the reaction in Escanaba today if youngsters tried such tricks? The law would be on them and they would be charged with a variety of offenses ranging from malicious destruction of property to car theft.

MASQUERADE PARTIES—Halloween parties are now annual events in all of the schools. There children can raise as much whoopee as they wish, all carefully supervised by parents and teachers, of course.

One of the features of the Halloween party is the masking and costuming, in which the children seek to hide their features behind fearsome and comic false faces.

As the children grow into teenagers the costumes become more elaborate and more imaginative.

CATS AND CORNSTALKS—The name Halloween indicates its origin, for the celebration occurs on hallowed or holy evening prior to All Saints' Day.

Back beyond the Christian era, however, the event was marked by a Summer's End or autumn festival—an occasion for feasting on the harvest of the season. For this reason the pumpkins and the cornstalks, indicative of the ancient custom.

And how did witches and cats work their way into Halloween? By the same method of tradition and a mixture of many beliefs.

The early people of England, the Druids, believed that on Halloween, ghosts, spirits, fairies, witches and elves came out to harm humans. To frighten these creatures away the people built large bonfires and gathered around them in the evening to relate their experiences in meeting "ghosts."

While warding off the evil ones, the people around the bon fires frightened each other with unexpected noises—today's equivalent of a loud but childish "boo!" when the door is opened to the "trick 'r treat" gang.

JOIN THE FUN—In the 700's the old pagan festivals were gathered together into an All Saints' day as a Christian event, which pleased everyone desiring a holiday.

Now the people of America and Europe find time for foolishness on Halloween and piously on All Saints' Day, and no one is too old or too young to enjoy either.

One of the major obstacles to the pleasure of Halloween is the opinion that people should not be so undignified as to mask and join in the revel. Fortunately this opinion is shared only by a limited number.

Most people recognize in Halloween an opportunity to have fun, to be carefree and impish and noisy, and even childishly frightened or amused by witches costumes and comic masks.

Join the fun on Halloween, even if it be only to share in the laughter of youth and the giving of sweets to children. It will help brighten your heart and chase away the spectre of that old witch—middle age.

Air West Point Waits For O. K.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The Air Force is ready to set up a West Point of the air as soon as Congress says yes.

There is even a possibility it may not be necessary to await congressional authorization before starting an experimental air academy on a small scale.

These possibilities were discussed at a briefing by Lt. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commanding general of the Air University, for visiting aviation writers.

The University, at nearby Maxwell Air Force Base, is not an academy, but a military graduate school for officers.

A bill now before Congress, sponsored by Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.) and supported by the Defense Department, would authorize an air academy of 2,500 students, an enrollment equal to that of the military academy at West Point.

Oven Strangles Boy

CLEVELAND (AP)—James Przestelka, 14, was strangled to death Tuesday when his head wedged between an oven door and a revolving belt at a bakery where he was employed cleaning pots and pans. Police said the boy apparently stuck his head in the oven to see whether pans were drying.

Output 100 Per Cent Of 1953 Capacity At United States Steel

NEW YORK (AP)—United States Steel Corp. is producing steel at 100 per cent of its theoretical 1953 capacity, an annual rate greater than in any of the World War II years.

Board Chairman Benjamin F. Fairless expressed confidence Tuesday that the full capacity operations would continue for the rest of this year, and keep at 95 per cent for the first quarter of 1954.

The world's biggest steel producer disclosed its net income for the July-August-September period was $61,705,264 or $2.12 a share—greatest third quarter income since 1916.

Shipments of steel products during the first nine months this year hit an all time record 18,951,123 tons.

The corporation's net income for the first nine months of this year boomed to $166,723,028 or $5.66 a share, as compared with $96,158,606 or $2.96 a share for the like period of 1952.

Veteran Kite Flyer Has Amazing Stunts

BRADLEY BEACH, N. J. (AP)—Charles Baum, 73-year-old tax accountant, thinks flying kites is good fun no matter what your age. Baum goes in for the sport in a big way.

He flies dozens of kites at a time and his record is 85 from one string, a trick he did last summer in this north Jersey coast resort.

Baum attaches each kite to a 50-foot line, gets it aloft and then ties the line to the main line. On his main reel is seven miles of nylon cord, some with a test strength of 440 pounds.

Tiny Quadruplet Dies At Lansing

LANSING (P)—"Baby boy A," "Baby boy B" and "Baby girl C" apparently were winning their battle for survival today — but "Baby boy D" was dead.

The fourth tiny infant of the quadruplets born to Mrs. June E. Trollman, pretty — dark — haired divorcee, died Wednesday afternoon.

"The other three are coming along fine," said Glen W. Faussey, director of Lansing's Edward W. Sparrow Hospital, scene of the multiple births within 12 minutes of each other around midnight on Tuesday.

Hospital attendants gave a preliminary listing of the cause of death as "immaturity atelectasis" — asphyxiation caused by incomplete development of the lungs. A postmortem was being performed.

At the request of the mother, the four children were baptized with a few drops of water from an eye dropper by Rev. L. J. Koeninger, associate pastor of Lansing's First Emmanuel Lutheran church.

The surviving babies, all weighing less than three pounds each, are being fed with an eye dropper.

If they fail to respond, they may be fed by means of a tube inserted in their stomachs.

Army Gives Facts On Murder And Torture By Reds

relatives of men reported dead or missing.

Officials know that pictures of dead and wounded men often are mistakenly identified by grief-stricken relatives. No names were used, of course.

Some of the reports on cases read like these:

A massacre: "The captives were then escorted to a nearby orchard where their boots and dogtags were removed and all their personal property confiscated. The prisoners' hands were tied behind them with either wire or their own bootlaces. For two days they were kept hidden in ravines during the day and forced to march at night. Suddenly on the afternoon of 17 August 1950, without warning, their North Korean guards opened fire upon these bound victims and then left the scene. Thirty-four American soldiers were slaughtered in this massacre."

The bamboo spear case: "During December 1950, a South Korean patrol discovered the bodies of five American airmen near Muju. It was apparent from the condition of the remains that the victims had been subjected to fiendish torture, the flesh being perforated with multiple punctures, apparently inflicted by sharpened sticks or bamboo spears."

Potter Gathers Facts

The prospect that any war criminals would be brought to trial is remote. Out of the accumulation of evidence, rumors, accusations and confessions by captured enemy soldiers the Army has prepared material for trial in 43 cases.

But accused, as well as some witnesses, have gone from American hands. Some of them were released in the exchange of war prisoners last summer. Others disappeared in the mass breakouts from war prisoner camps last June.

Sen. Potter (R-Mich.), in San Francisco now, is reported quietly picking up eyewitness accounts of Communists' atrocities for use in televised public hearings to start in early December.

Walter Francek officiated at the 9 a. m. ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of fall flowers. The senior choir of the church sang traditional wedding music.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Betters of Powers, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marcelle Charlier of Carney.

Sister of the bridegroom, Miss Angeline Charlier, served as Miss Betters' maid of honor, while the bridegroom's sister-in-law acted as bridesmaid. Karen Auts, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Attendants of the bridegroom were Paul Betters, brother of the bride, as best man, ushering were Glenn Poupore and Donald Murray, and ring bearer was Gerald Betters, brother of the bride.

The bride wore a bouffant floor length gown of white satin and nylon tulle styled with a Chantilly lace bodice, a pearl embroidered Peter pan collar and long tapered sleeves. Her finger-ring veil was held by a heart shaped headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and pink flowers.

The two bridal attendants wore identical floor length gowns of white tulle. Their veils were caught by lilies of the valley on heart shaped hats. They carried matching cascade bouquets of mums. A floor length gown of white net over tulle was worn by the flower girl. The gown was styled with tulle ribbons.

Mrs. Betters attended her daughter's wedding in a navy suit with matching accessories while the mother of the bridegroom was attired in a navy dress with matching corsage. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow flowers.

A wedding breakfast and a dinner were served at the home of the bride's parents for 100 guests. In the afternoon, a reception for 300 guests was held at the Bluebird Inn.

British Airliner Wreck Spotted

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—A British Commonwealth Pacific airliner with 19 persons aboard was reported missing today, and a short time later an air-sea rescue unit reported sighting wreckage of a four-engine overseas plane southwest of the plane's airport destination.

The DC6, inbound from Australia, had been missing for almost two hours before the wreckage was spotted.

The wreckage was in a hilly area southwest of Millbrae, a city near the San Francisco International Airport. The wreckage scene is about 15 miles south of San Francisco.

The plane was due in San Francisco at 7:45 a. m. today. It was late. There was a good fuel reserve.

The San Francisco airport tower said visibility was about 10 miles.

The doors will open at 6:30 p. m.

For amusement there will be rides, penny pitching, basketball game, shooting gallery, guessing games, fish pond, fortune telling, novelties, picture gallery, spook house, slideshows, refreshments and other mysterious goings on.

The sophomore class will present a play, "Whodunit" at 9 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Position Open On Parole Board

LANSING (AP)—Civil Service Director Arthur G. Rasch said that his department will hold a competitive examination in 60 to 90 days for a permanent appointment to the State Parole Board.

The 1953 law reorganizing the corrections department under a six-member commission increased the parole board from four to five members.

Last week, the commission appointed the first Negro in history, Leonard R. McConnell of Lansing, as the fifth member. He holds the post provisionally. The commission previously had agreed to appoint a Negro to the board to represent the high Negro population of the prisons.

Rasch, however, emphasized that civil service regulations forbid any consideration of race in the permanent appointment.

Infection Of Liver Increases In State

EAST LANSING (AP)—A sharp increase in infectious hepatitis—a virus infection of the liver—was reported by the Michigan State Health Department.

The number of cases in Michigan has increased from 283 last year to 624 in the first nine months of 1953.

The department said the increase points to a need for more effort to improve sanitation. The disease is transmitted by contact and is prevalent in areas where general sanitation is poor.

The disease mostly hits youngsters between 10 and 14 years of age. It usually is accompanied by a low fever and is seldom fatal.

Barter Deal Stumps Real Estate Dealer

CRESCENT BEACH, S. C. (AP)—Dennis Beam of Shelby, N. C., had a cottage at Crescent Beach. Zeb Grigg of Kings Mountain, N. C., had a 280-pound hog.

Beam wanted meat. Grigg wanted a week at the beach. The two got together. After the swap, Grigg had his week at the beach, Beam had his pork.

Everybody was happy—except the hog and a real estate man handling Beam's beach property. He's still figuring how to collect 10 per cent of the hog for rental commission.

Water Has More Uses

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—It isn't always drought that depletes a municipality's water supply. Vice President Arthur L. Corbin Jr., of the New Haven Water Company told the Connecticut public utilities commission as he presented a rate increase petition.

People use more water than they used to, he said, because they are buying things like automatic washing machines, garbage disposal units, dishwashers and air conditioning units.

Slowdown In Business Predicted Next Year

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Some hardy guessers are out with what they see ahead for business — theirs or everybody's — in 1954. In the coming weeks many more in the business world will go out on the limb in year-end reviews and peeks into the future. Save their predictions, and see how they stack up this time next year. Here are the early ones:

For the metalworking industries, Benjamin F. Fairless, chairman of U. S. Steel, thinks his company will operate at around 95 per cent of capacity in the opening months of 1954. That's just about what the industry as a whole is doing right now.

Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., on the other hand, is cutting output by 9 per cent because of "market conditions."

William White, president of New York Central Railroad, thinks his company's revenues will fall 6 per cent next year, with earnings also off, the extent depending upon what labor gets in the way of higher wages.

"A general business decline of between 10 and 15 per cent," predicts John L. McCaffrey, president of International Harvester, adding: "I'm not alarmed at all about business. But there comes a time when we have to go down a little, then level off."

Some slowing down in business during 1954 is foreseen by N. C. McGowan, president of United Gas Corp. He says: "We aren't going into any tailspin, but to put it plainly, the honeymoon is over."

Londoners To Wear Gauze Masks In Smog

LONDON (AP)—Millions of Londoners who carried gas masks for nearly six years during World War II soon may be toting a new type of mask—this time as protection against winter "killer fogs."

A London medical committee representing 6,000 general practitioners urged Londoners to make themselves simple gauze masks for the oncoming smog season.

The committee said nearly all 6,000 deaths caused by sulphuric fumes of the smog last year could have been avoided by a gauze mask costing the equivalent of a dime to make.

OLD BELIEFS
Parts of the St. John's Wort furnished early-day sufferers with cure-alls for all sorts of ailments. Doors were decorated with the plant on St. John Day in the belief that it kept out evil spirits.

What's the Secret?

Why are cakes made with Duncan Hines Mixes so moist, so tender, so much like the finest homemade cakes that experts (and friends) can't tell them apart?

The Answer is Simple!

- 1 Duncan Hines' knowledge of food and recipes.
- 2 Duncan Hines' insistence on use of the finest ingredients... and
- 3 the fact that you use your own FRESH EGGS!

"No good cook would think of using dried eggs in her prized recipes, and yet factory-dried powdered eggs are the only kind that can be put right into a cake mix package. That's why I ask you to add your own fresh eggs. And that's why—when you use Duncan Hines Cake Mix and your own fresh eggs—you're guaranteed a fresher, bigger cake—better in appearance, freshness and flavor...or your money back."

Ann Arbor Realizes Court House Dream

By JOHN F. MAYHEW
ANN ARBOR (AP) — The quiet, thoughtful man stepped out of the small group standing on the court house lawn. A smile of satisfaction rippled through the group as he turned a shovelful of earth.

The man was Thurlow Sanford, chairman of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors. He had just signalled the start of construction on a new and long-sought courthouse.

"The culmination of untold efforts," he called it.

And everybody in this area agreed.

Built In 1878

The gleaming five-story limestone, glass and aluminum building that will be built has been a dream of local businessmen, officials and civic leaders for almost two decades.

The creaking old red - brick structure, built in 1878, had long been inadequate for a county that grew in population from 40,000 to 115,000 between its building and the present. The city itself had swelled from 8,000 to 40,000.

The subject of a new courthouse had, for years, been a prime question here in 1938 when the Board of Supervisors voted approval of the idea and began to consider financing, design and location.

Since then, the dreamed - of courthouse has been side-tracked, voted down, voted up, abandoned, revived and throughout remained one of the hottest topics of conversation in the county.

At one stage, citizens voted approval of supervisor plans for a new building, then defeated the financing plans in a general election.

Another time, the project collapsed over difference of opinion on the location of the new building. Up to four different sites were considered.

But the shovelful of earth turned by Sanford marked the end of all the striving.

Workmen are already clearing the trees from the court house lawn, to make way for the $3,250,000 U-shaped building that will rise around the old landmark.

Soon, this county will have a modern, fire-proof center, bringing together the now - scattered functions of Circuit Court, Probate Court, Board of Supervisors, prosecutor and city offices.

Records, storage and libraries will be housed under a new roof that provides space for reporters, clerks and juries. Conference rooms, meeting rooms and even cells for prisoners.

The first payment on the financing bond issue, approved in a general election a year ago, will be due Nov. 1.

The argument and discussion has faded. Washtenaw County is on the way to building a court house designed to fill the needs of the next 100 years.

M.E. Vandenbooms Observe Their Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Vandenboom of 1307 1st Ave. S., senior members of a widely known Escanaba family, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday.

The observance of the day opened with a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph's Church at which the jubilarians repeated the marriage vows they made 50 years ago. Father Stephen Schneider, OFM, was celebrant of the mass, Father Bertin Harrington, OFM, was deacon and Father Colman Higdon, OFM, sub-deacon. Attending the couple as they repeated their vows were George Bursinger of Tomah, Wis., who was best man at the wedding and Mrs. Bursinger.

Music Of Mass

A recital of bridal music was played by Miss Alice Cossette, organist, as the guests were being ushered to their places. "Panis Angelicus" by Franck was sung by Bernard Ammel just before the beginning of the mass. St. Joseph's Choir sang the Ordinary and Propers of the mass and following the service Mrs. Ray Olsen sang "On This Day." Miss Cossette played the recessional.

Golden yellow roses and bronze mums were arranged on the main altar for the anniversary mass and bouquets of mixed mums were on the side altars.

An anniversary breakfast for members of the family was served at 12 noon at the Dells Supper Club. A low arrangement of golden colored roses and bronze mums with matching golden tapers centered the table.

Reception At Home

The reception and open house for neighbors and friends was held from 3 to 8 p. m., at the family home where an attractively appointed buffet supper was served. Flowers in gold and bronze shades were used throughout the home and roses and mums were effectively combined in the centerpiece, flanked by white tapers.

The four-tiered square wedding cake, served from a side table had a golden wedding bell and wreath as its top ornament and beside it stood a miniature bridal couple with the bride attired in a gold dress. Presiding at the silver service was Mrs. Harold Elmer of Oshkosh. Mrs. Rodger Murray served the punch.

For the festivities Mrs. Vandenboom wore an autumn brown faille dress with brown accessories and a corsage of golden yellow cymbidium orchids.

Call From Son In Tokyo

Mr. and Mrs. Vandenboom were presented with beautiful golden wedding gifts and they also received numerous messages of congratulation. The latter, including messages from their grandson, George Vandenboom Jr., a cadet at St. Thomas Military Academy, St. Paul, and from Father A. J. Koertel of Sturgeon Bay, an old family friend, were climaxed by a trans-Pacific telephone call from their son, T-Sgt. George Vandenboom, who is stationed with the Air Force in Tokyo, Japan.

Among those here for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Depuydt of Ashland, Wis., Joseph Vandenboom of Chicago, Miss Josephine Vandenboom, RN, of Hines, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rhodes and Beth and Bill of Maywood, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Livingstone, St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nowicki of Oshkosh, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Vandenboom, Sgt. Louis Nowicki of Camp Carson, Denver, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meyer of Mayville, Wis., Mrs. Vandenboom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Vandenboom and Mrs. Manix Wigman of Green Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elmer and daughter, Julia, Oshkosh, Mrs. Leola McLain of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hedberg of Minong, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Orville Olsen, Antigo, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collins of Fayette, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Depuydt, Mrs. Camiel Depuydt and Julius Van Damme of Perkins.

'Dizzy' Trout Guest At Casey Home

Paul "Dizzy" Trout, former Detroit Tiger pitcher and Red Van Orman, also of Detroit, were dinner guests at the William Casey home at Wells last evening. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Longtime and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmeltzer and family. The two visitors are here for bird hunting and Trout will return in November for his annual visit to Casey's Camp Ross during the deer hunting season.

CUTTING THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING cake at a reception last evening at their home are Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Vandenboom, whose marriage took place 50 years ago at Berlin, Wis. The observance of the golden wedding Wednesday opened with a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Joseph's Church, followed by a family breakfast at the Dells Supper Club and the home reception. (Juetten Studio)

Fire Damages Jensen Home

Fire started by a broken chimney Wednesday afternoon caused extensive damage to the Russell Jensen home, 602 Garden Ave.

Manistique firemen were summoned at 1:55 p. m., and worked for two hours to extinguish the blaze under a false roof on the wood building. Ten volunteer firemen responded also.

Fire Chief Elmer Boals, who led his men in the 2-hour fight which extinguished the fire before it destroyed the building, reports the chimney of the structure broke off near the roof, and that a north wind fanned the flames into shingling.

Shingles and paper in the attic burned, and firemen chopped holes in the roof to get to the fire.

Only Mrs. Jensen was home when the fire started.

No one was injured.

The wood, one-story house is owned by P. J. Krummey of Manistique.

Bodies moved were those of Maurice Shine, Carl Olsen, Noah Arcen, Baby Opal Stigall, Rub Yale, a World War I veteran removed to Hermansville, and three Fairchild children, Clyde Wesley, Kenton Everett and V. E. Fairchild.

Messier-Broullire Funeral Home of Manistique was in charge. Caskets were re-enclosed in rough boxes before they were placed in new graves.

The cemetery removal was authorized in a special election in Mueller township last fall to make possible rerouting of M-77 east of its present location.

Schools Can Have Turkey

Students in schools offering hot lunches will be eating turkey in November.

According to a bulletin released to schools, the Thanksgiving birds are among items on the "plentiful foods" list for the coming month. Other foods on the list are winter pears, cabbage, carrots and potatoes.

Schools which order these foods are re-imburshed for their cost by the federal government, Mrs. Ludwig Hough, county school superintendent, reports.

In addition to these foods, schools also can order hamburger, cheese, beef and gravy, dry milk, unlimited quantities of butter, shortening, salad oil, canned peas and peaches, orange juice, peanut butter, tomato paste, dry beans and tomatoes.

The foods are ordered from the Goulette storage warehouse in Iron Mountain and are delivered to schools by truck.

Government surplus foods are available to schools and in addition, other foods are bought through a state hot lunch fund.

Escanaba High School Band

Escanaba High Band In Final Grid Appearance

The 75-member Escanaba High School band will make its final football appearance of the season when it entertains between halves of the Eskymo-Ironwood football finale here Saturday.

Under the direction of Robert S. Meyer, the band will present a Halloween program in which appropriate formations will include

Castellani Gets Win Over French Fighter

CLEVELAND (AP)—Rocky Castellani wants a crack at middleweight champion Bobo Olson after winning a unanimous decision Wednesday night against Mickey Laurent of France.

Castellani, ranked No. 4 among the middleweights, was simply too strong and too clever all the way. Although game and aggressive, Laurent found the Cleveland's defense almost a stone wall. In turn, the Frenchman was ripped with savage underhand rights to the body and hooks and jabs to the head.

Laurent, at 158½, had a half-pound weight edge in the nationally televised bout.

Baylor Tackle Named Lineman Of The Week

WACO, Tex. (AP)—James Ray Smith 215-pound, 20-year-old one-man wrecking crew on Baylor's unbeaten team, Wednesday was named "lineman of the week" by The Associated Press for his magnificent play against Texas A & M last week.

His extra-point kicking and all-around play gave the Bears a 14-13 victory and third place in The Associated Press national football rankings.

Against Texas A & M, Smith threw the key blocks that made possible long runs by L. G. Dupre, Baylor's star back. He recovered a fumble that led to Baylor's second touchdown and then, of course, kicked the all important extra points.

STEPS UP NOTCH

SUMMIT, N. J. (AP)—Teddy Davis, winner of five of six fights this year and ranked No. 2 challenger in the 126-pound division, Friday night met George Araujo, third-ranked lightweight, at Madison Square Garden.

Picks West Virginia To Win 12th Straight Game

By HAROLD CLAASEN

NEW YORK (AP)—That spill into Upset Gulch last Saturday will leave permanent marks. Of 50 decisions, 35 were predicted correctly for an average of .760. The season's figures show 196 correct and 46 wrong for .766.

This week's forecasts:

Notre Dame over Navy: Coach Frank Leahy's illness gives the Irish enough incentive to win.

West Virginia over Penn State: If the Mountaineers, who now have won 11 in a row, take this one they should go through the season unbeaten.

Michigan State over Oregon State: This could be a massacre. Oregon State couldn't even score in its first five games.

Michigan over Penn: The Big Ten team will win with relative ease.

UCLA over California: Paul Cameron to tear up the sod as UCLA moves another step closer to that Rose Bowl job Jan. 1.

Southern Methodist over Texas: The Mustangs defeated Kansas last week on a fumble and a pass interception. They have saved all rows of corn shocks, a pumpkin, cider jug and skull and cross bones.

Musical selections will include "Way Down Yonder," Peter-Peter Pumpkin Eater," "Little Brown Jug" and "Dry Bones." The band will also form an I for Ironwood and an E for Escanaba and play the Esky Fight Song.

The opening kickoff for the final game of the season will be at 2. Officials will be Thor Reque and Ray Ranguette of Manistique and Norman Slough of Rapid River.

Coach Joe Milokna's Eskymos will be facing what most observers feel is the No. 1 football team in the Upper Peninsula, Ironwood enters the game with seven

Top Class D Teams In State To Clash

PECK (AP)—Snap! That's what'll probably happen to one, and possibly two, football streaks tomorrow night when Peck meets Kingston in a top Class D high school game.

Peck is unbeaten, untied and unscored upon in six games. On the other side, Kingston's Skippy Patterson will be trying to score in his seventh straight game this season.

A fleet halfback, Patterson has piled up 17 touchdowns and 20 extra points in leading his team to five victories against one loss. Last season he led every high school player in the state in scoring, with 144 points in seven games.

Kingston started playing football three years ago and Patterson, then a sophomore, scored 67 points. He now has a three-year total of 333 points.

Eight Bowl Games Get NCAA Approval

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association today put its stamp of approval on eight post-season football games. NCAA executive director Walter Byers said the following games have been certified:

their scoring plays for Texas.

Army over Tulane: The Cadets have discovered some backfield speed since that early season loss to Northwestern. Tulane hobbled by backfield injuries.

Illinois over Purdue: Purdue has won its game of the year.

Some others:

FRIDAY NIGHT
Marquette over Boston University.

SATURDAY
East: Princeton over Brown, Cornell over Columbia, Yale over Dartmouth, Holy Cross over Syracuse.

South: Auburn over Florida, Maryland over South Carolina, Georgia Tech over Vanderbilt, Alabama over Georgia, Louisiana State over Mississippi, North Carolina over Tennessee, Duke over Virginia.

Midwest: Minnesota over Pittsburgh, Oklahoma over Kansas State, Colorado over Iowa State, Indiana over Missouri, Nebraska over Kansas, Ohio State over Northwestern, Oklahoma A & M over Tulsa, Iowa over Wisconsin.

Southwest: Baylor over Texas Christian, Rice over Kentucky, Texas A&M over Arkansas.

Far West: Southern Cal over Oregon, Stanford over Washington State.

straight victories this season and the Red Devils are pointing for the U. P. championship and the Barber Trophy.

Escanaba is winless in seven starts this year. Starting the season with a green team, Escanaba has been unable to jell into an effective unit. The Eskymos have indicated flashes of ability in several games but have been unable to maintain a solid performance in any particular contest.

Milokna has brought up a half-dozen sophomores from the reserve squad in an effort to prepare for the future, and many of the youngsters have been seeing regular action since midway in the season.

Saturday's starting lineup will remain the same as last week, Milokna said today. Last season the Eskymos traveled to Ironwood and came out of a bruising game with a 0-0 deadlock against the favored Red Devils.

Shades Of Knute Rockne: Leahy May Use Telephone

NEW YORK (AP)—Knute Rockne's whispered encouragements over a telephone from his home half a continent away inspired Notre Dame to a 14-7 football victory over Navy in 1929. There could be another such tense dressing room scene Saturday before the Irish and the Middies meet for the 27th time.

Coach Frank Leahy, a tackle for the '29 Irish who heard the ailing Rockne's words, may have to talk to his team in a similar manner due to a muscular spasm attack which struck him during last week's game with Georgia Tech.

At any rate the upset-minded Sailors must buck a "win this one for the coach" spirit when they tangle with Notre Dame at South Bend.

Irish Have Big Edge
Notre Dame holds an edge of 21 victories and a tie against four defeats in the rivalry.

The 1929 game was just one of many dramatic encounters in the series. With Rockne ill back in South Bend, Tom Lieb brought the Irish into Baltimore. A long distance phone call from their coach fired the invaders.

Navy scored in the first period, then made two goal line stands but the Ramblers would not be denied. Notre Dame drove 55 yards in the second period to score on an 11-yard pass from All-America quarterback Frank Girdo to Jack Elder. Fullback L. Mullins dove over center for the tie-breaking tally late in the game.

Navy's finest hour came in 1934 when the Middies won their second in a row and second of the series 10-6. Some 60,000 fans watched Navy halt eight Irish marches, one on its three, and capitalize its only two scoring opportunities.

Punt Is Blocked
Capt. Dick Burns, Navy guard, blocked an attempted punt and recovered on the enemy 37. Tackle Slade Cutter kicked a field goal. In the final period Bill Clark re-

Baseball Heads Will Discuss Coast Future

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, along with major league mogul P. K. Wrigley of the Chicago Cubs, meet today to mull over the immediate future of the loop.

Wrigley decided to sit in to discuss his ideas regarding major league baseball for Los Angeles. He is concerned with Los Angeles because he owns the territory, as well as the Cub franchise in the National League.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

One of the hardest hit teams in terms of senior graduation in this area this season is Coach Don Protenhauer's Gladstone Braves. The Braves, who finished the season with a .500 percentage on four wins and four losses, will lose eight of eleven starters this year. Three reserves will also graduate in June.

Three of the four starting backs are seniors. Fullback Joe Corbiel, right halfback Bob Burton and quarterback Francis Peterson have played their last games on the Gladstone gridiron. Graduating from the line will be Capt. Duane Peterson, an end, guards Dick Rivers and Bob Sandstrom, tackle Ed Farrell and center Rod Kelley. Also leaving this year are tackles Tom Olson and David Stock and quarterback Dick Goodman.

As in past years, the Braves will be honored at a football recognition banquet sponsored by the Gladstone Rotary Club. The banquet will be held next month and as has been the custom in the past, the Upper Peninsula Coach of the Year will be a guest. The U. P.'s top coach is selected by the Sports Writers Association at its annual fall meeting, scheduled this year for Nov. 14 at Marquette.

Highlight of Gladstone's 1953 season, of course, was the convincing victory over Escanaba's Eskymos last weekend. In posting a 35-7 victory over the Eskymos, the Gladstone eleven established a high-water mark in the series between the schools that began in 1899.

The Braves opened their season on a slow start, losing three straight games by rather narrow margins. They won their fourth start but dropped their fifth by a one-point margin. Then Gladstone rolled for three straight wins to end the season. Losses for the year were to St. Joe (6-0), Munising (7-0), Manistique (13-0) and Newberry (13-12). Wins were over Marquette (12-0), Ishpeming (12-7), Stephenson (14-0) and Escanaba (35-7).

All Set For Orioles In Baltimore Now

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The former St. Louis Browns can now settle down in their new home at Baltimore, free of legal worry.

The last obstacle to the transfer of the Browns to Baltimore was eliminated Wednesday when minority stockholders dismissed a suit they started against the club. The suit, attempting to block the transfer and asking a financial accounting from Bill Veeck and associates, had been set for trial yesterday.

Jerome F. Duggan, lawyer representing the minority group, said there was no financial settlement. Duggan added that continuation of the suit might have harmed baseball. "When I accepted this litigation," he said, "it was with the understanding there would be no attempt to injure the game."

Ted Kress Is Still Top Ground Gainer

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP)—For the fifth straight week, Detroit halfback Ted Kress led Michigan's football team in picking up yardage.

In the performance extremely limited by Minnesota and the versatile Paul Giel, Kress made only 38 yards rushing in 10 plays against the Gophers for a season total of 208 yards in 58 carries.

He completed only one of five passes for 44 yards, bringing his serial figures to 14 completions in 29 tries for 190 yards. That gives him a five-game season total of 388 yards.

Flint halfback Tony Branoff retained his runnerup spot despite gaining only 27 yards. His total is 289 yards.

The passing lead remained with Duncan McDonald, who completed two of seven for 27 yards. He has a season total of 219 yards on 13 completions in 25 attempts.

Michigan Athletic Director Fritz Crisler was unreserved in his praise of Giel.

"The best individual performance I've ever seen," he said. "And I saw Red Grange and a number of others."

Many of the players, who hadn't see such illustrious performances, had this comment: "The toughest game I was ever in."

Weird sight on the basketball court: Milt Mead in a mask.

Mead, the 6-foot-7 center-forward from Bay City, suffered a broken nose in a recent game of touch football here. Working out with the Wolverine team in preparation for the 1953-54 season, he is wearing a mask that ties over the top of his head and protects nose and cheekbones.

Having beaten both Michigan and Wisconsin in football, x x x Michigan Agricultural College is now seeking admission to the Western Conference.

"Optimistic alumni predict that their alma mater will be accepted x x x long before Michigan is forgiven and re-admitted. Michigan 'withdrew' from the conference in 1908 in protest against 'retroactive provisions' of conference regulations.

A note from 40 years ago (Oct. 27, 1913):

Wyoming's Brooklyn Cowboy Is Nation's Top Offensive Back

LARAMIE, Wyo. — (NEA) — Wyoming's "Cowboy from Brooklyn," Joe Mastrogianni, has made the transition from Flat-bush to the rugged cow country in spectacular style.

The Cowpoke tailback rode herd on the nation's individual offensive statistics for the first six weeks of the season, and for a sophomore showed amazing good sense doing it.

A sober, silent demeanor dictated by the pressure of publicity attendant to his fine college football debut has replaced his freshman boisterousness. In other "words" as Joe might say, he's handling himself with decorum.

Also elate and elan, especially on the football field. His first six games netted him a total of 935 yards gained.

And Wyoming's Mr. Alphabet did the bulk of it the hard way on those Tennessee-style single-wing power rushes taught by Coach Phil Dickens.

He's averaged about six yards a crack.

Yet he can throw, too. When it looked as if Colorado A. and M.'s tough defense was about to put a quick end to his running reputation by holding him to 21 yards in 13 attempts, he threw seven passes—and completed all seven. They enabled Wyoming to win, 21-14.

He's got help, too. "I'm not the smartest guy in the world," says Joe, "but I'd really have to be dumb to figure I could go anywhere without the rest of these guys."

He also insures his room and board by punting and kicking extra points.

At five feet six inches and 194 pounds, Mastrogianni (mastro-joe-von-ee) is hardly a typical All-America figure. He looks, more like a cube than a pillar of pignis power, and a prominent proboscis added to his squatness reminds you of an irritated rhino when he's going at flank speed.

"He's the most colorful player we've had here in years," says Wiles Hallock, Wyoming publicity man.

Joe's family lives at 255 North 9th Street in Brooklyn. He has two younger sisters. His dad, Tom, probably has spread the news about his "Cowboy" around the borough because he has an extensive bakery truck route.

At Boys' High School, Joe was All-Metropolitan and a 1951 prep All-America as a tailback.

John Lenihan, the Pokes' first string right tackle and another Brooklyn boy who preceded him by a year, talked Joe into coming to Wyoming. Bowden Wyatt, last year's coach, also got wind of him through a Tennessee contact in Brooklyn.

Joe's nuts about Wyoming. "Everybody has time to be your friends, to speak to you on the street—not because you play football, either," he says.

But it helps, podnuth, it helps.

Del Wilber Is Best Pinch Homer Hitter

NEW YORK (AP)—Del Wilber, a reserve catcher with the Boston Red Sox, belted four home runs as a pinch-hitter during the 1953 season to lead all major leaguers in that department, Associated Press figures showed today.

Wilber's output was only one short of the American League record set by Joe Cronin of the Boston in 1943. The major league mark is six by Johnny Frederick of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1932.

Grady Hatton of the Cincinnati Redlegs and Bobby Hofman of the New York Giants, a pair of utility infielders, topped the National League in pinch-hit homers with three apiece.

Johnny Mize, who closed out his brilliant career after the World Series, also walloped three for the New York Yankees.

AT HOME ON THE RANGE

Giel Dominates Big Ten Grid Statistics

CHICAGO (AP)—Halfback Paul Giel of Minnesota, who will be seen by millions Saturday in the nationally-televised football game against Pittsburgh, is dominating Big Ten statistics in workhorse fashion.

The All-American leads the conference in total offense with a gain of 602 yards in four games. He is second in rushing with 397, and second in passing with a .545 completion average and a gain of 227.

As a safety man on defense, Giel tops the league on punt returns with a 16.6 average in eight turnbacks. He is second in pass interceptions with three and second in kickoff returns with a 25.6 average in four.

Caroline Top Runner

Although Giel is dominating the records, his pace is not as sensational on offense as Illinois' sophomore blur, J. C. Caroline. Caroline, in only two Big Ten games, leads in rushing with 397 for a spectacular average per carry of 8.8. Giel's average is 3.8.

John Borton, Ohio State quarterback who missed one game with injury, is ranked No. 1 in passing. He has completed 18 out of 31 tosses in two games for a .581 completion mark. His aerial gain has been 219.

Caroline is second on total offense, his record being based strictly on running since he has not thrown a pass. Third is Indiana's Florian Helinski, who has made all but one of his total 357 yards by passing.

Bob Topp of Michigan is the No. 1 pass receiver with 10 catches for 178 yards. But Giel's target in last Saturday's Michigan game, Jim Jim Soltan, drew into contention with eight catches to tie Joe Collier of Northwestern for second ranking.

Northwestern's Dick Thomas, who has tossed 40 passes and completed 23 for 285 yards in two league games uses his foot as well as his arm. He leads the punting department with a 41.1 average.

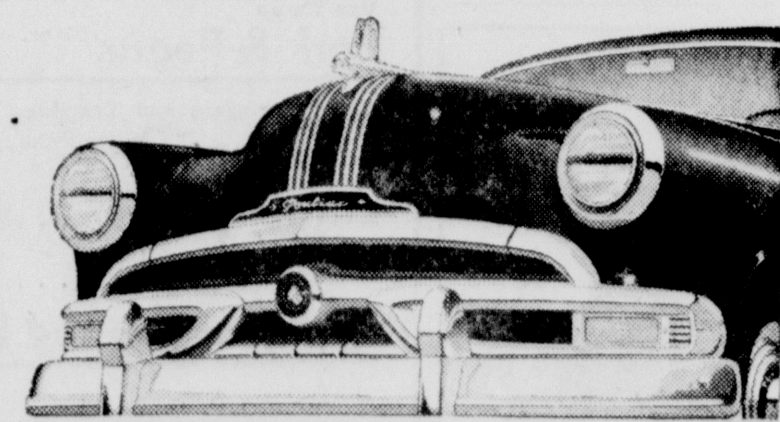

Black Hawks Score First League Win

(By The Associated Press) What the Chicago Black Hawks apparently need are more games at Madison Square Garden.

The Hawks, who won their last five starts on New York ice last season, scored their first victory of the National Hockey League new campaign Wednesday night, easily whipping the Rangers, 6-1. The triumph came after seven Chicago defeats and one tie.
